Integrated Program for Reducing Bovine Respiratory Disease Complex in Beef & Dairy Cattle Coordinated Agricultural Project (BRD CAP)

Long-term goal is to reduce the prevalence of bovine respiratory disease, the number one killer of both beef and dairy cattle costing > $1 billion annually, by capitalizing on recent advances in genomics to enable novel genetic approaches to select for cattle that are less susceptible to disease.